

Amazon is opening 100,000 new full and part-time positions across the U.S. in their fulfillment centers and delivery network to meet the surge in demand from people relying on Amazon's service during this stressful time, particularly those most vulnerable to being out in public.

Amazon welcomes people as part of their team who have been economically impacted in areas such as hospitality, restaurants, and travel as part of this COVID-19 crisis until things return to normal and their past employers are able to bring them back.

In the U.S., Amazon will be adding an additional $2 USD per hour worked through April from the current rate of $15/hour or more, depending on the region.
